There is always a situation where a prospective customer cannot get a sample of the oils before purchasing. This is because at the moment global deliveries are very strained. This means that we need to rely of faith that the oils are pure enough for our therapeutic needs. The only solution is to get a doTERRA essential oils pocket reference and see what all the fuss is about.

The doTERRA essential oils guide book doTERRA a to z guide will give you all the information you will ever need. It will allow you to assess whether doTERRA is for you. And if its offering the quality and standard of essential oils you require in your daily life.

This is a short list of some of the information in our exclusive essential oils pocket reference.

- What Are Essential Oils?
- CPTG Certified Pure Therapeutic Grade
- Essential Oil Uses
- Essential Oil Singles
- Essential Oil Blends
- Diffusers
- Essential Skin Care
- Hair Care
- Spa
- Vitamins, Supplements and Digestive Health
- Children's Supplements
- Weight Management

The main product line of doTERRA is essential oils. However, they also have a wonderful selection of essential oil infused products. My wife's personal must haves are the skin and hair car products which she informs me are outstanding.

Yes...

It is if you can find a wellness advocate who is willing to share one with you. I personally do not buy them. I would rather prefer sending doTERRA books and guides in a PDF formatted to my prospective customers. The main reason is that it is very simply and convenient to download a PDF guide book. You can get it instantly and read it via your pad, PC or even your phone.

Why quality is important when purchasing essential oils?

Regardless, if you are purchasing a car or a bottle of wine, quality is always important. No one wants to pay good money for a low standard product.

For me I hate to regret it later. The importance is even more profound when buying therapeutic grade essential oils. The reason is that we are using the oils on our skin. So, we want the purest oils available with therapeutic properties that are optimized when they are being used. Fortunately, the quality of doTERRA products are so high that they can be used with a diffuser, topically and internally.

The most commonly used oil is lavender oil according to the doTERRA oil book

One of the doTERRA customer favorites is Lavender essential oil. Its uses are vast. It can be used by adding a few drops of Lavender oil on your pillows at bedtime or used internally to reduce anxious feelings.

Below I have put a few suggestion regarding usage:

Diffusion: Add about three to four drops in your diffuser and place in your bedroom 20 minute before you go to bed for a relaxing and deep sleep.

Internal use: Dilute one drop in 4 fl. oz. of liquid and drink before resting to help reduce anxious feelings.

Topical use: Apply one to two drops to desired area to help towards relaxation.

WHO SHOULD I GET MY DOTERRA ESSENTIAL OILS GUIDE BOOK FROM AND ENROLL WITH AS A WHOLESALE CUSTOMER OR WELLNESS ADVOCATE?

ARTICLE BY STEVEN JACKSON

This is a good question. But normally most do not take my advise. Those who do, have been in this situation before. Working with friends and family can be a very bad decision.

Over the years of being with doTERRA I have been contacted by unhappy members who joined a friend and wished they hadn't.

First thing they ask me is if they can transfer their enrollment to me. Sadly, this is not that easy to do. Members need to leave doTERRA for 6 months before rejoining under someone else.

The better option is to think carefully about who you are going to join. Joining a friend or family member does not always work. It can be detrimental to any relationship if it is not treated professionally. Often this is not the case and breakdowns in communication can result in a unhappy and unsuccessful business.

The type of person you should enroll with is:

- They should be enthusiastic about being your enroller and sponsor
- They should have the same mindset as yourself

- They should be will to teach you as much as you are willing to learn
- They should encourage you to step out of you comfort zone
- They should be an active listener
- They should give feedback as and when needed
- They should treat you with respect
- They should be knowledgeable about doTERRA, their products and the business
- They should be a leader and able to guide you towards success

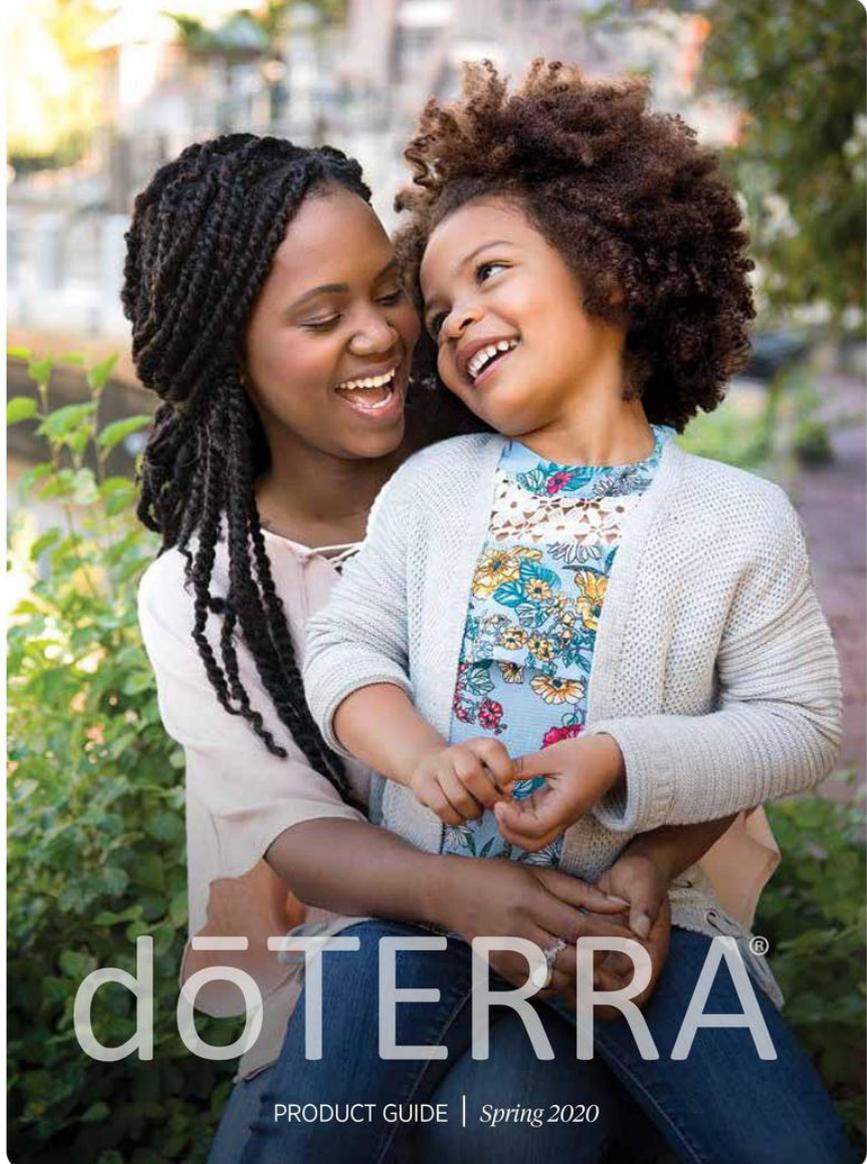

If you feel that you have a family member or a friend that fits these traits that's great. Then they are a professional and the right person for you. However, often this is not the case, which means you will need someone who will be a professional in the industry. If this is the case, click on the enrollment button below.

What will happen if I enroll with a doTERRA network marketing professional?

He or she will expect you to play your part and read the material sent to you and be proactive on a daily basis. This will mean taken simply steps on your journey with doTERRA. Starting with learning a little about the three main oils that I have already shared on this page.

This is not going to be a sprint, so do not fear that you will be overwhelmed with work. However, you will be expected to take responsibility for your learning and ask question about the oils and the business.
